

Patrick Angeseing Manager

Patrick combines expertise in taxation, accounting and business advisory with several years general public practice experience. His broad perspective is matched by a laser-like attention to detail and technical knowledge that results in tangible wins for his clients. Patrick takes pride in being a proactive and approachable communicator who provides his clients with clear, accurate and timely advice on any financial issue, no matter how complicated or straightforward.

Smarts: Bachelor of Business & Commerce (Accounting), Chartered Accountant (CA)

Excels at: Taxation, business advisory, fringe benefits tax

Big win: Saved a client $46K interest and penalty charges in an ATO audit by ensuring key information was available when it was needed and communication between parties was always clear and prompt.

Thrills: on a board riding the waves or steep snow-covered slopes
