

Sharron Kyroussis Partner

Sharron's considerable experience solving complex taxation issues for her clients spans decades. She innately understands when something is not quite right and knows exactly where to look for solutions. Never daunted by a challenge, Sharron thoroughly investigates every angle using a systematic approach that not only looks at the specific issue, but also takes a holistic view of her clients' particular situation or need to ultimately deliver the best possible results.

Smarts: Bachelor of Business (Accounting), Master of Taxation Law, Chartered Accountant (CA), Chartered Tax Advisor (CTA), Registered Company Auditor, Registered SMSF Auditor

Excels at: taxation, business strategy superannuation

Big client win: Saved a property developer several million dollars tax on winding up a group of related entities. By applying the commercial debt forgiveness provisions in the Tax Act to related party loans, Sharron saved her client a considerable amount of tax that would have otherwise been payable if the entities been wound up in the usual way.

Destination of choice: New York! New York!
