

Shelley Gosling Office Manager

Shelley is a whelan + cook veteran, having started her working life with the company almost 20 years ago as a junior administrative assistant. Consequently she knows everything there is to know about w + c business operations and the services and support clients need. Under her direction the office runs like a well-oiled machine that uses the latest technology, systems and processes to ensure clients get the best service possible. This translates into prompt follow up of questions, timely distribution of important information, and the best coffee with a view on St Kilda Road!
